Vandalism Of Toronto Sign

Is Nuit Blanche to blame?

Sometime during the night of Nuit Blanche, our beloved sign was vandalized.

During Nuit Blanche, the all night arts festival, the Toronto sign at Nathan Phillips Square was vandalized.

The iconic sign was constructed as part of the Pan Am games and was so popular with tourists and locals that the city decided to keep it as a permanent landmark.

Fortunately, the graffiti, including scribbles and names, has been easy to removed and therefore, no permanent damage has been done. Even, so many Torontonians are dismayed that people did it in the first place.
